

Title of session: Smart City transformation with Low Power Internet of Things devices.

An emerging low bandwidth and low power but long range technologies call LoRA has been gaining traction in many Smart City around the world. Cisco as a global leader in providing Smart City solutions will share in this session how LoRA works as well as a use case sharing of an actual LoRA deployment from a European country.